(4) That numerous public and private agencies and services are available to assist her during her pregnancy and after the birth of her child, if she chooses not to have the abortion, whether she wishes to keep her child or place the child for adoption, and that she will be provided with a list of such agencies and the services available if she so requests; and

(5) Numerous benefits and risks are attendant either to continued pregnancy and childbirth or to abortion depending upon the circumstances in which the patient might find herself. These benefits and risks shall be explained to the best of such physician's or health care professional's ability and knowledge of the circumstances involved.

(f) The provisions of this section shall not apply in those situations where an abortion is certified by a licensed physician as necessary to preserve the life or health of the pregnant woman.

SECTION 4. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.
